Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Winter vacation is over!

I'm going to start school very soon.

So today, I went to a department store to purchase school supplies.

I always need lots of binder paper for doing my homework, so I got more than 5 stacks!

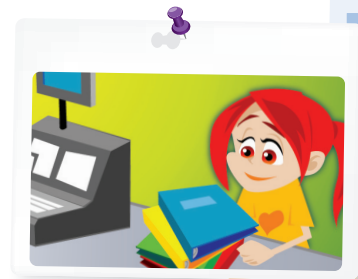

My classes require that I bring at least one red pen and one black pen, so I had to buy those as well.

Because I easily lose my papers, I had to buy dividers and a binder to keep track of all of my work.

The best part about starting school again is that I get to have all of these fresh supplies.

But then, they always end up dirty by the 2nd month, especially my eraser, because I have the habit of doodling on it.

I should learn to take better care of my supplies!

Choose the correct answers.

1. Why did Lara go to the department store?

- 1 Her mother made her go.
- 2 Lara's sister needed school supplies.
- 3 Because she is starting school soon and needed supplies.

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Tomorrow, we are going to buy a Christmas tree so that we can start decorating the house.

The holidays are just around the corner, and my parents and I are going to light up our roof with all the Christmas lights!

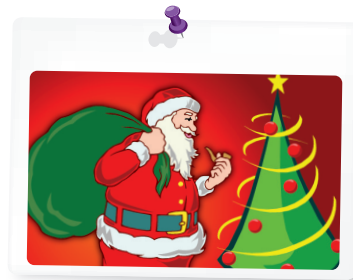

Christmas is the favorite time of the year for me, especially because I get to receive presents.

I know that it's important to remember to give and not receive, but I still can't wait until Christmas Eve!

My younger cousins truly believe in Santa Claus, so I think they're much more excited than I am.

Whether there is a real Santa or not, I'm going to spend this Christmas with the people I love the most, my mom and dad!

I'd better find my favorite tree ornament so that I can start decorating the tree tomorrow.

Choose the correct answers.

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Today our entire class took a field trip to the library.

There were hundreds of books in all corners.

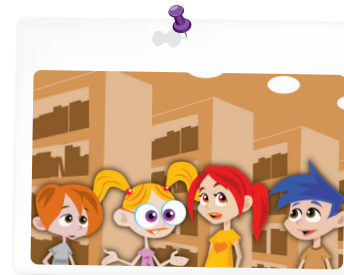

The library even had a computer room and a catalog for searching all of the books that you need.

I've been to the library many times, but it looked really different when we had a guide who explained everything to us.

She told us that our city boasts one of the largest libraries in the world!

She also told us that if we go to Washington D.C, we can see a library that holds all the old documents from people who lived more than a hundred years ago.

I can't imagine how great it would be if the library were to keep my writings until a hundred years later!

Choose the correct answers.

1. How could someone search for a book in the library that Lara visited?

- 1 Cry until someone helps them.
- 2 Use a catalogue to search.
- 3 They have to walk through the entire library.
- 4 Ask Lara for directions.
- 5 Yell out for the book.

2. Why was this trip to the library different than the other times Lara has been to the library?

- 1 There was a special exhibition.
- 2 The library had been renovated.
- 3 There was a guide to explain everything.
- 4 It was raining out.
- 5 Lara was excited this time.

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Tomorrow, I'll be moving out to an entirely new city.

I said good-bye to all of my friends and we took pictures so that we won't forget each other.

A lot of my friends were crying, and I almost cried, too.

At home, I still have a lot of things I must pack.

It's funny to see all these boxes pile up in my room.

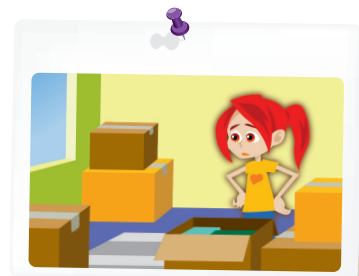

The entire house looks very empty.

The moving truck will come early tomorrow morning, so I need to have everything ready by then.

I hope I will have the chance to see my friends one last time before I leave.

I promised them that I'd write to them when I arrive.

I'll miss them terribly!
