Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

I went to the computer warehouse with my parents to buy a laptop computer.

My parents are actually buying it for my brother, because he needs a personal computer during class.

I guess college students really need laptops, because they take a lot of notes during class.

It would be so cool if I could use a laptop at school to take notes.

But laptops are not allowed in our school yet.

We bought a fairly simple laptop for my brother.

My mom didn't want to buy him a fancy one,

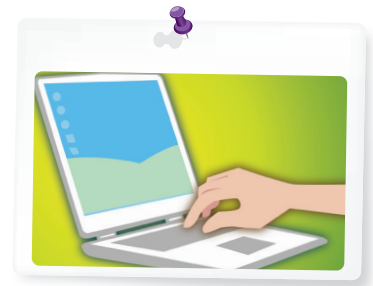

because she only wants him to use it for educational purposes.

My brother didn't sound too happy about that.

Anyway, I think he's incredibly lucky for having a laptop of his own.

Now he can bring it with him wherever he goes.

That would be so convenient.

Choose the correct answers.

1. Why are Henry's parents buying a laptop computer?

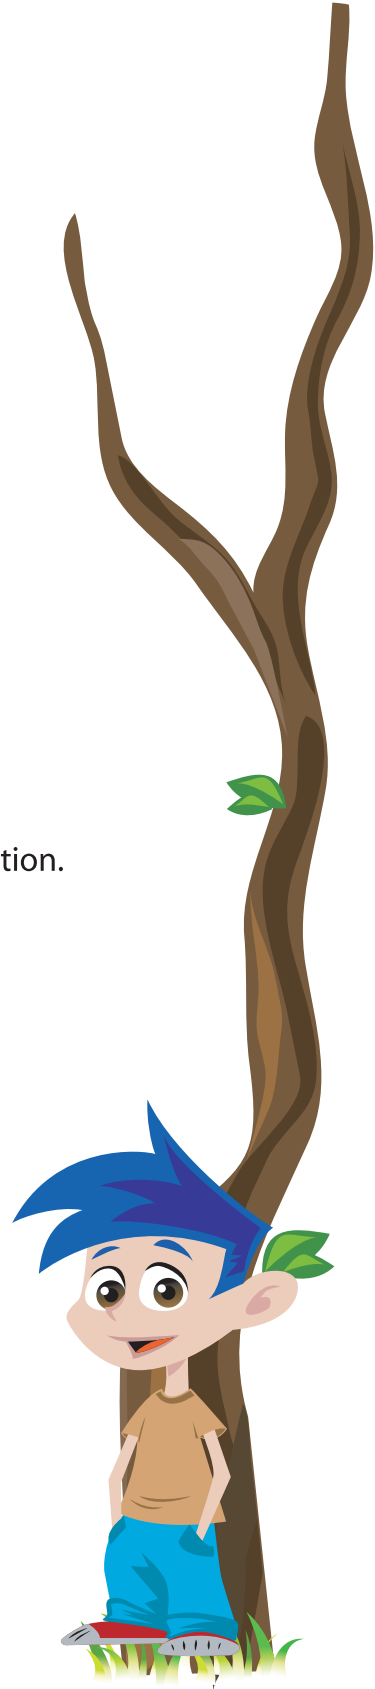

- 1 His parents wants to learn how to use laptops.
- 2 They have too much money.
- 3 Henry needs a personal computer for class.
- 4 They want to have multiple computers.
- 5 Henry's brother needs a personal computer.

2. Why didn't Henry's mother want to buy a fancy laptop?

- 1 They can't afford a fancy laptop.
- 2 She wanted to make Henry's brother mad.
- 3 She doesn't want it to be used for purposes other than education.
- 4 Henry's father did not want one.
- 5 Henry's mother doesn't like fancy laptops.

3. Why is having a laptop convenient?

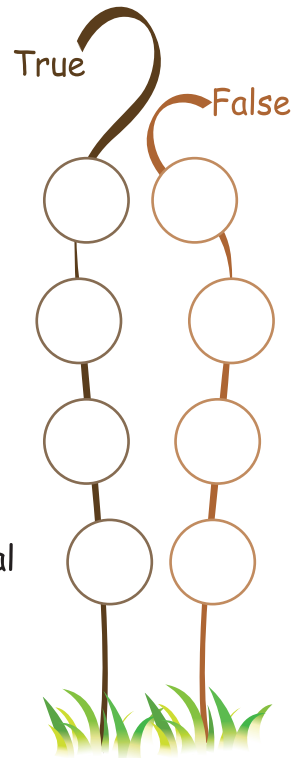

- 1 Everyone in the family can use it.
- 2 Henry's brother can carry it everywhere.
- 3 It makes things easier.
- 4 There's no need for pen or paper anymore.
- 5 Writing on laptops is fast.

Advanced Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Now that I think about it, there are a lot of things I can learn and enjoy through a computer.

I can use it to play games, and I can also use it to read.

There are countless numbers of texts I can read online, and there is no limit to the information I can gather by researching the web.

All the grownups are always surprised to see that a kid like me can be so good with computers.

But it's no big deal, really.

Computers are very easy to use if you only know how.

Besides, it's not the 1990's anymore.

Almost every kid knows how to use a personal computer.

I guess the world has really changed since my parents were kids.

I can't imagine a life without my computer, but I'm going to make sure that I use it the right way!

From now on, I'm really going to start studying with my computer.

And who knows?

Maybe then my parents will buy me a cool laptop of my own!

Choose the correct answers.

1. What are some things that Henry has learned that he can do on the computer?

- 1 Stare at the screen.
- 2 Watch movies.
- 3 Play games and read.
- 4 Talk to other people.
- 5 Type.

2. What does every kid know how to do now that Henry's parents didn't?

- 1 Play games.
- 2 Use the remote control.
- 3 Use a personal computer.
- 4 Study hard.
- 5 Be lazy.

3. What does Henry hope his parents will do in the future?

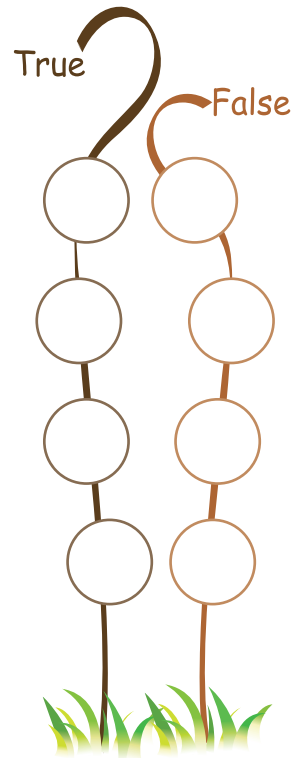

- 1 Buy him a laptop.
- 2 Drive him to school.
- 3 Take him to Disneyland.
- 4 Give him more allowance.
- 5 Buy him a car.

Advanced Step

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Major League Baseball (or the MLB) holds a World Series tournament every season.

My dad and I used to go to the New York Yankees games very often.

That was before we had to move to Smalltown.

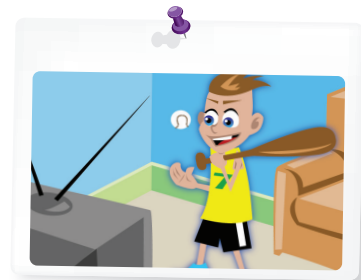

Here, we don't have our own team,
but we watch all of the games through television.

There are nine innings in a game, and whichever team scores the most within those nine innings wins the game.

Whenever a hitter hits a home run,
all the fans stand up and cheer with joy.
You can feel the entire stadium shake!
Sometimes, when a player hits a home run,
the bat can even break!

From the sidelines,
I tried to catch some of the foul balls,
but somebody always got to them before I did.

When I go back to the Yankee stadium,
I'm going to catch a ball for sure!
I wish that I could be with those players in the dugout.
It must be so exciting!

Choose the correct answers.

1. To which games did Josh often used to go?

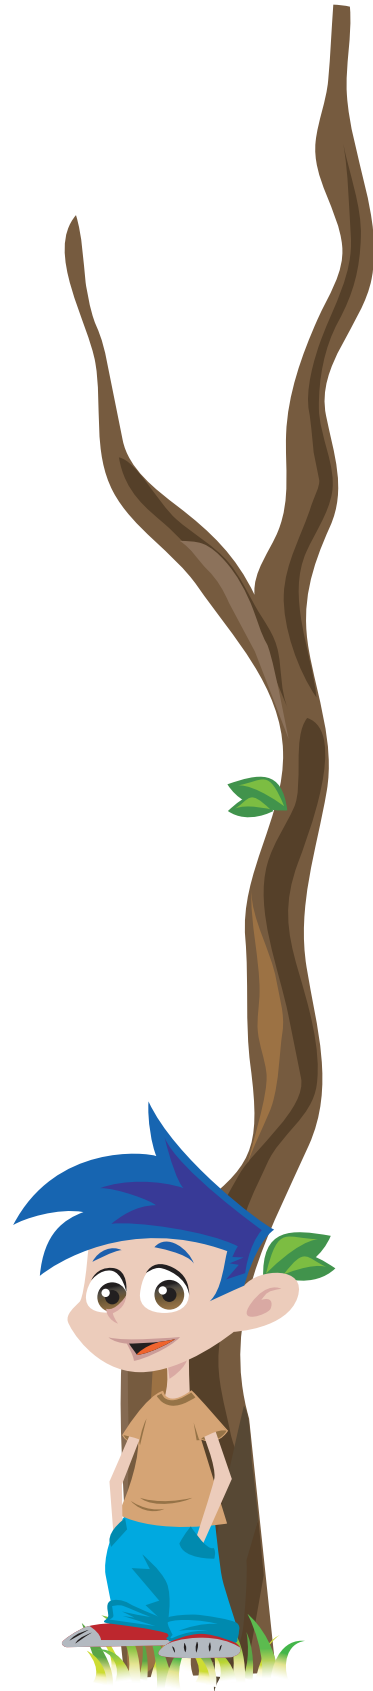

- 1 The Dolphins
- 2 The Lions
- 3 The Mets
- 4 The Yankees
- 5 The Giants

2. According to Josh, what did he try to do from the sidelines?

- 1 Try to catch one of the foul balls.
- 2 Watch how fast the ball was.
- 3 Cheer on the batter.
- 4 Keep track of the scores.
- 5 Try to see how far a home run could go.

3. What is the typical reaction when a hitter hits a homerun?

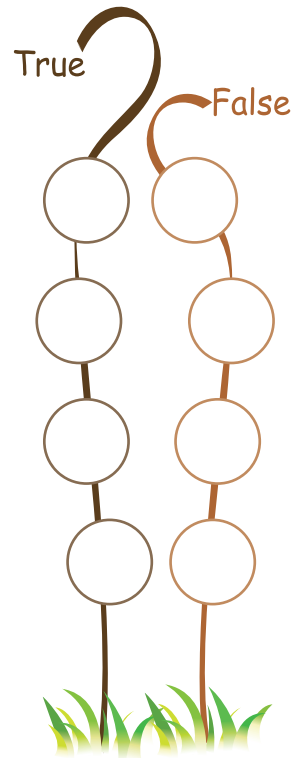

- 1 The stadium goes quiet.
- 2 The hitter gets an award.
- 3 The crowd boos the hitter.
- 4 The fans stand and cheer.
- 5 The crowd throws flowers.

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Yesterday, my mom bought me a series of books about the legendary Greek heroes and heroines.

I started to read volume I, and it was much more fun than I thought.

It was about the Trojan War and how the cunning Odysseus made it into Troy without getting caught.

Odysseus, one of the Greek heroes, built a huge horse out of wood and left it on the Trojan beach.

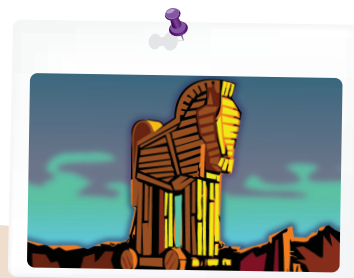

The Trojans, thinking that this horse was a gift from the defeated Greeks, brought it into the castle. But inside this gigantic horse, Odysseus and his soldiers were waiting for a chance to attack!

When all the Trojan soldiers were sleeping, Odysseus and his men attacked the village and conquered Troy.

I felt bad for the Trojans because they lost their homes to the Greeks, but I couldn't help admire Odysseus' wit.

Because of Odysseus' plan, the Greeks were able to conquer Troy.

I guess you really have to be smart to win battles, too.

Choose the correct answers.

1. Who was Odysseus?

- 1 The leader of the Trojan army that lost an important battle
- 2 The name of a wooden horse
- 3 A legendary Greek hero
- 4 The king of Troy
- 5 An unintelligent army general

2. How did Odysseus fool the Trojans?

- 1 He lied to them and told them that he was surrendering.
- 2 He did not try to fool the Trojans at all.
- 3 He told them he was leaving the Greek army to join the Trojans.
- 4 He attacked the city gates at night.
- 5 He built a large wooden horse and tricked the Trojans into thinking it was a gift.

3. What did Mary conclude after reading the story?

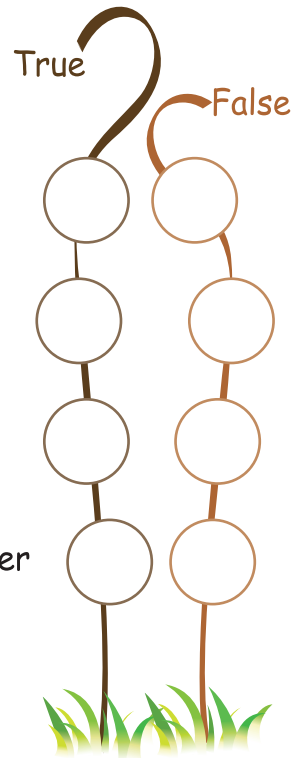

- 1 Odysseus was a very tricky person.
- 2 You need to have both strength and intelligence to win battles.
- 3 The Greeks had a more powerful army than the Trojans.
- 4 It is easier to win wars when you give gifts to your enemies.
- 5 The stories of old Greek heroes are boring.

Advanced Step

★ Check True or False.

- 1 The book was much more fun than Mary thought.
- 2 Odysseus built a huge horse out of stone.
- 3 Odysseus and his soldiers hid in the gigantic horse to attack.
- 4 In spite of Odysseus' plan, the Greeks weren't able to conquer Troy.

★ Put the words in order.

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

One of the greatest writers of all time, according to my teacher, is William Shakespeare.

He was a famous English poet who wrote great tragedies such as Othello, Hamlet, and Romeo and Juliet.

I've never read any of his works before, but my mom talks about him all the time.

She's his number one fan. She has every single play and sonnet that Shakespeare has ever written!

She can even recite some of his sonnets by heart.

Of course, it's still too hard for me to read his text, because Shakespeare lived a very long time ago and he didn't speak in modern English.

For example, back in Shakespeare's day, "you" was "thee" or "thou".

I don't know how my mom understands everything that Shakespeare wrote, but she says that I should be able to read and understand everything if I keep improving my reading comprehension skills.

Once I'm good enough to read Shakespeare, I want to read all about "Romeo and Juliet" and learn why they're so famous.

Choose the correct answers.

1. What country is William Shakespeare from?

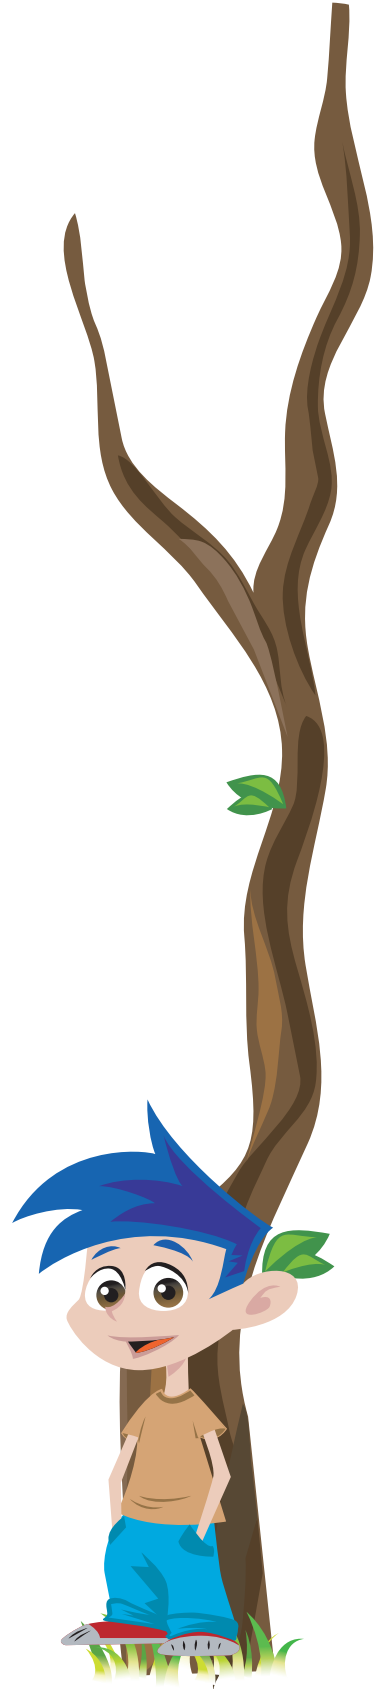

- 1 England
- 2 Italy
- 3 Germany
- 4 France
- 5 United States

2. Which of the following is a famous Shakespearian play?

- 1 Beauty and the Beast
- 2 King Arthur
- 3 Romeo and Juliet
- 4 King James
- 5 Jack and the Beanstalk

3. What does "thee" translate to in modern English?

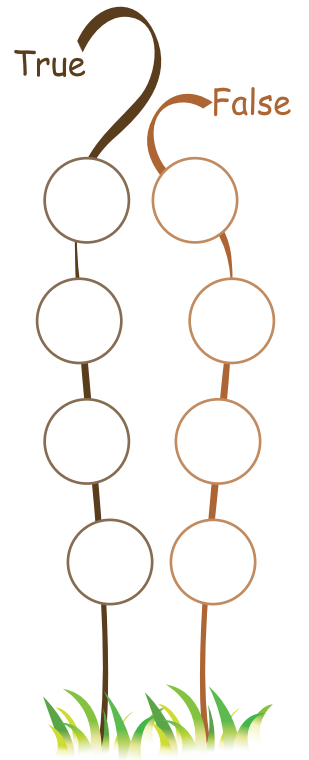

- 1 You

A: A translation? Didn't he write in English?

B: Yes. But he wrote a long time ago and the language has changed a lot over time.

A: So the translation makes the story easier to read?

B: Oh yes. It is written in modern language.

A: What is the story about?

B: It is a really sad love story.

A: Oh really? What makes it so sad?

B: Well, this young couple falls in love, but their families try to keep them apart.

A: Why won't the families allow them to be together?

B: They are angry with each other.

A: That is dumb. What happens to the couple?

B: The families are so hard on them that the young couple kill themselves.

A: Well, that is even dumber. There are so many other, better choices.

B: I know. It does seem like such a waste.

A: Everybody could have worked together and found a solution.

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

I wonder who invented the grammar rules of English. Well, whoever it was, I'm not very happy with that person right now.

I took a pop quiz on grammar yesterday and I actually got one wrong!

Instead of writing "Airplanes were" I wrote down "Airplanes was" by accident!

Because "airplanes" is plural, I should have used a plural form of verb, which in this case is "were" and not "was". How clumsy of me!

Now I need to do a practice drill on singular and plural verbs. My grammar book is one of the thickest textbooks I have.

I've already reviewed most of the rules I should know by heart, but it's still difficult because I'm not very familiar with some of the rules yet.

Tomorrow, we're going to go over "run-on sentences" in class.

I better go over some of these rules before my teacher gives us another pop quiz!

Choose the correct answers.

1. What is the thickest book Mary owns?

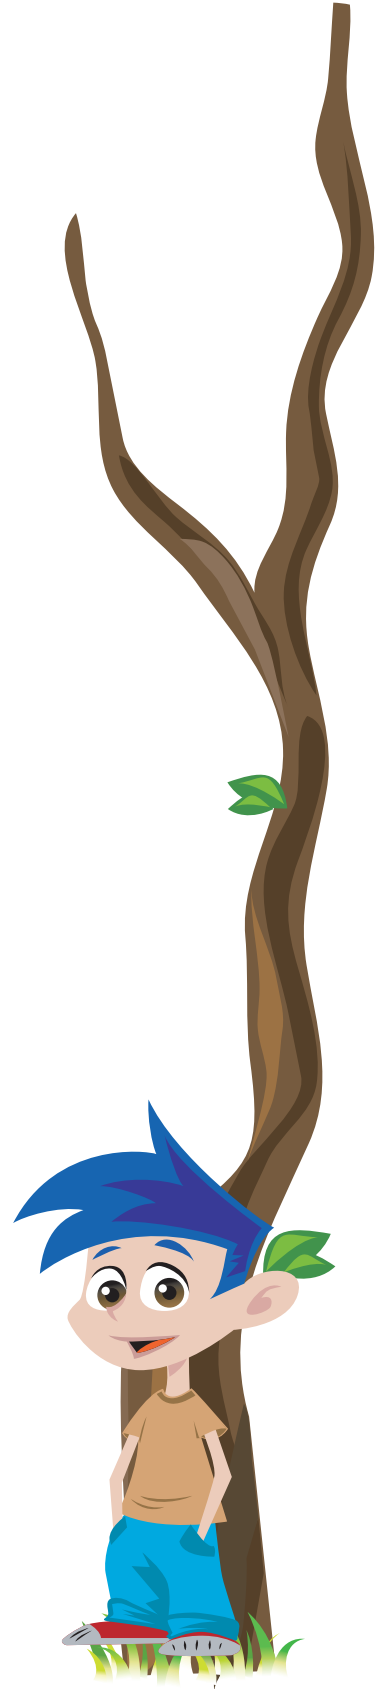

- 1 Her Spanish book
- 2 Her math book
- 3 Her grammar book
- 4 Her biology book
- 5 Her chemistry book

2. Why are grammar quizzes difficult for Mary?

- 1 She has trouble memorizing most of the rules.
- 2 She has not read her grammar book in a long time.
- 3 She is unhappy whenever she takes the quizzes.
- 4 She is still unfamiliar with some of the rules.
- 5 She does not like to study for her quizzes.

3. Which of the following sentences is grammatically incorrect?

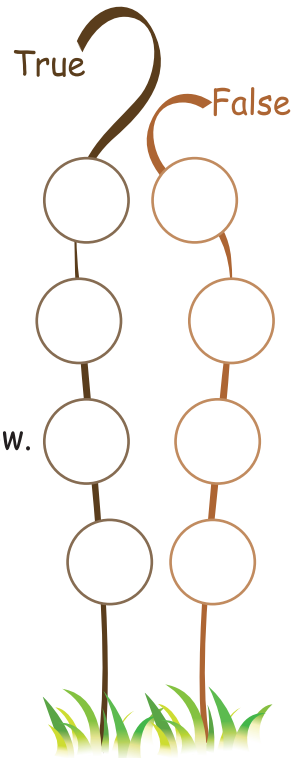

- 1 I left my house two hours ago.
- 2 They saved many people from the fire.
- 3 He plays computer games all day long.
- 4 She had a sandwich for lunch.
- 5 The apples is rotten.

Advanced Step

★ Check True or False.

- 1 Mary got one wrong on the grammar pop quiz.
- 2 Because "airplanes" is plural, Mary should have used "was".
- 3 Mary should do a practice drill on singular and plural verbs now.
- 4 Mary's math book is one of the thickest textbooks she has.

★ Put the words in order.

- 1 who invented / of English. / I wonder / the grammar / rules

- 2 right now. / Well, / I'm not / with that person / very happy / whoever it was,

- 3 already reviewed / the rules / by heart. / I should know / I've / most of

- 4 before / another pop quiz! / I better go over / my teacher / some of / gives us/ these rules

★ Answer the questions about the story.

1 What did Mary do yesterday?

2 What did Mary write down by accident instead of writing "Airplanes were"?

3 What is Mary's class going to go over tomorrow?

★ Fill in the blanks with the correct words.

B: Not as well as I would have liked.

A: I have such a hard time with that subject.

B: I don't like it much either.

A: It is so confusing. Every time you learn a rule you have to learn how many exceptions there are.

B: I agree.

A: What are we going to study next?

B: We are going to study sentences next. The teacher is going to go over ways to correct run-on sentences.

A: What are run-on sentences?

B: A run-on sentence is actually more than one sentence, but it is punctuated as if it were only one sentence.

A: Are there other ways to punctuate a sentence like that?

B: Yes, you can use a comma and a conjunction, or you can use a semi-colon.

A: I think I will wait for the teacher to explain those two.

B: I don't blame you.

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Hi, I'm Paul.

I'm originally from Seaside, Virginia.

But now I live in Smalltown with my parents, two brothers, and an older sister.

I'm 8 years old, but I'm turning 9 very soon.

It's my birthday next week.

I've already invited all of my friends.

My friends say I'm very quiet.

I don't talk much in school.

My hobbies include playing video games and playing with my dog, Pip.

Pip was given to me as a birthday gift from my parents.

They were too busy with work, so my grandparents brought him to the house instead.

Since then, Pip has been my best friend.

He's a well-bred husky pup and he tags along wherever I go.

He's really smart.

He already understands almost everything that I say!

Sometimes, Pip can even understand my feelings.

He knows when I'm sad, lonely, and happy.

Do you have a pet like Pip?

Choose the correct answers.

1. Where is Paul originally from?

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Tomorrow, I'm going to the zoo with my parents.

My favorite animal is the giraffe, because it has such a strange figure.

I wonder what it would feel like to slide down its long neck!

The giraffe truly is a remarkable animal.

It is the tallest animal that lives on land, and it uses its long tongue to eat.

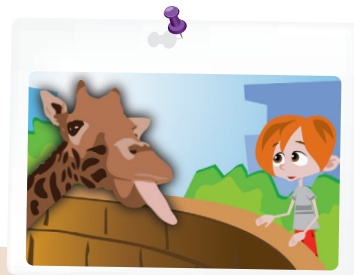

The giraffe's entire body is covered with brownish spots.

I tried to count all the spots on a giraffe before, but there simply were too many to count!

It even has a short tail that swings left to right when it walks.

I wonder if we could ever raise a giraffe at home.

But it would eventually grow too big for our house, wouldn't it?

Choose the correct answers.

1. What is Paul going to do with his parents?

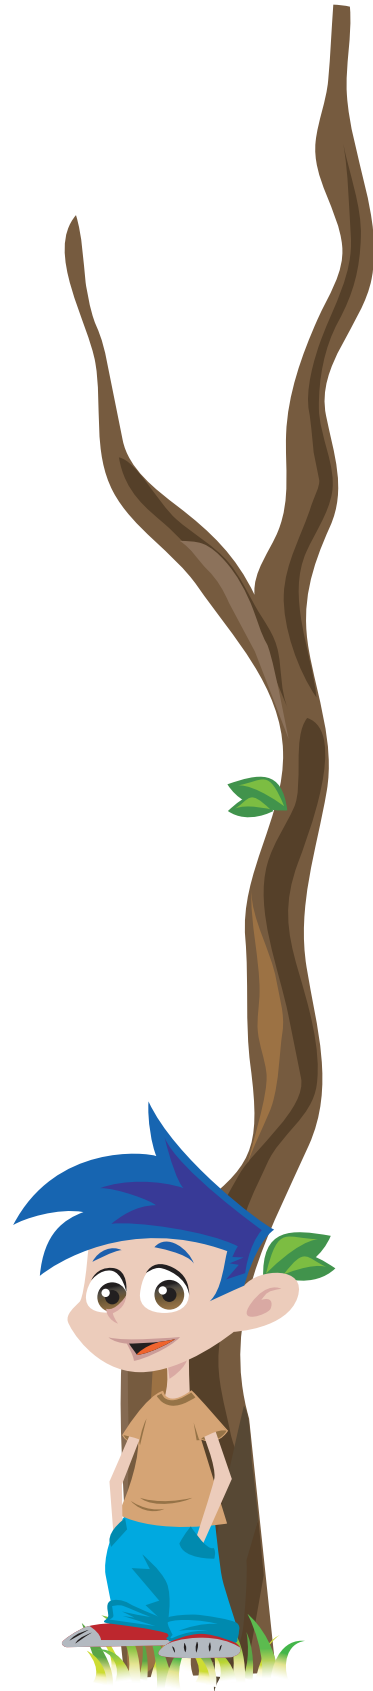

- 1 Go to the park.
- 2 Visit his grandparents.
- 3 Go to the pet store to buy a giraffe.
- 4 Go shopping.
- 5 Go to the zoo.

2. Why is the giraffe Paul's favorite animal?

- 1 It has brown spots all over its body.
- 2 It has such a strange figure.
- 3 It can be kept as a pet at home.
- 4 It is the tallest animal.
- 5 It has a long tongue to reach for leaves on trees.

3. What did Paul try to do with the giraffe?

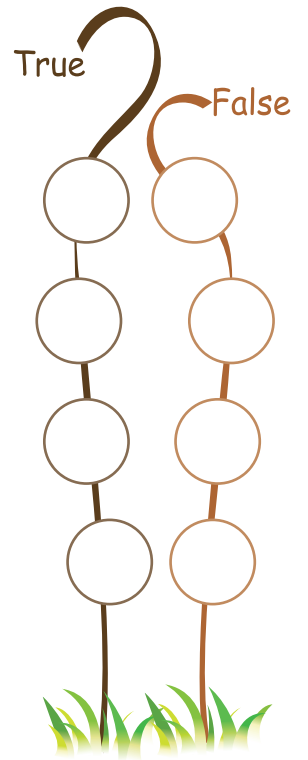

- 1 Count the number of spots on its body.
- 2 Feed it leaves.
- 3 Raise it at home.
- 4 Take it out of the zoo.
- 5 Climb onto its back.

Advanced Step

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

My dog, Pip, now has a new friend.

It's a small kitten that my mom bought for my sister.

The kitten is too small to eat by itself.

My sister was feeding it milk and holding onto it the entire afternoon.

So far, Pip has not warmed up to our little friend.

I heard that cats and dogs don't get along,

but I'm sure that my Pip will warm up to her eventually.

I just hope that our little kitten doesn't cry at night anymore.

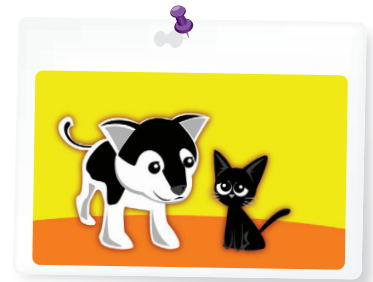

I think she misses her mom very much.

She was separated from her mother when she was just a week old!

I think that Pip understands how sad the kitten must be to have lost her mom.

He looks annoyed by all of her "meows", but I can tell that he cares a lot about his little friend already.

Choose the correct answers.

1. Who is Pip's new friend?

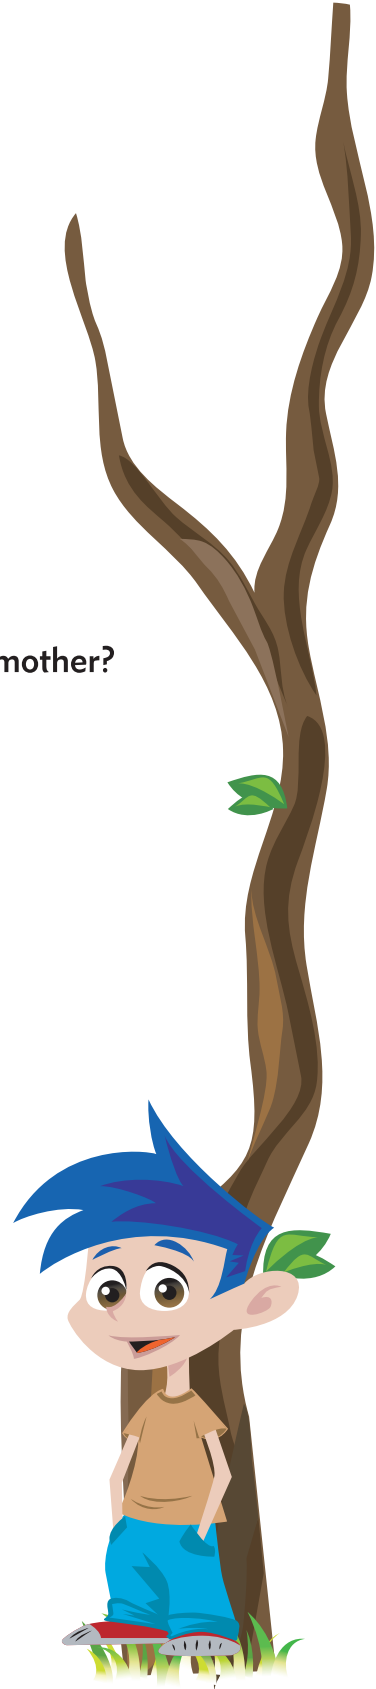

- 1 Paul's friend from school.
- 2 Another dog in the neighborhood.
- 3 A new kitten in the family.
- 4 Paul's sister.
- 5 A new puppy in the family.

2. How old was Pip's new friend when she was separated from her mother?

- 1 A month.
- 2 A day.
- 3 She was never separated from her mother.
- 4 A year.
- 5 A week.

3. Why has Pip not warmed up to his new friend?

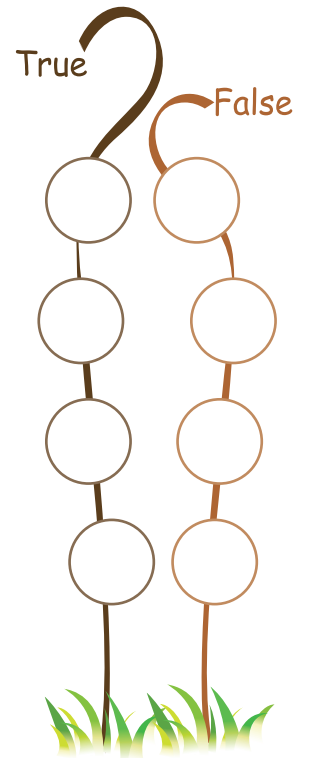

- 1 Because dogs and cats do not get along.
- 2 Because Pip does not like new people.
- 3 Because Pip likes to be left alone.
- 4 Because they are not spending enough time together.
- 5 Because his new friend is very annoying.

Advanced Step

A: Well, I want to let my kitten walk around a little bit.

B: Do you really think you should? She is very little.

A: She has got to have a chance to learn to walk, doesn't she?

B: I will hold Pip's collar. Will that be okay?

A: Sure. We should let them get used to each other.

B: Look, Clare! Pip likes her.

A: It looks like you are right. He licked her.

B: I am so glad. I was sure that they would be friends.

A: Maybe Pip will teach her to fetch a ball.

Reading Step

Read the following story. Then translate the sentences into Korean.

Soccer is my favorite sport.

I like to watch and play soccer.

On the weekends, my mom takes me to the little league where I can learn how to play better.

My coach makes us all run around the field to warm up. Then, he makes us go through a few practice drills. We practice dribbling, passing, and shooting.

My position is a striker.

A striker is a person who tries to make as many goals as possible.

Whichever team has the more number of goals wins the soccer match. But making goals is not always the most important thing.

We need to think about our defense, too!

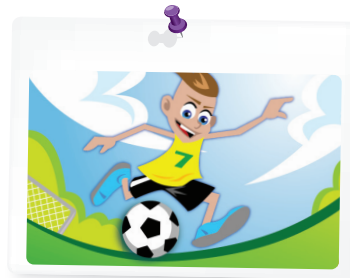

There are players who defend their goalpost by trying to block my shot.

A goalie is a person who stands in front of the goal post and wears huge gloves.

He can block out a shot by punching the ball away with his hands!

Which position would you like to play?

Defense or offense?

Choose the correct answers.

1. What's Josh's position on his soccer team?

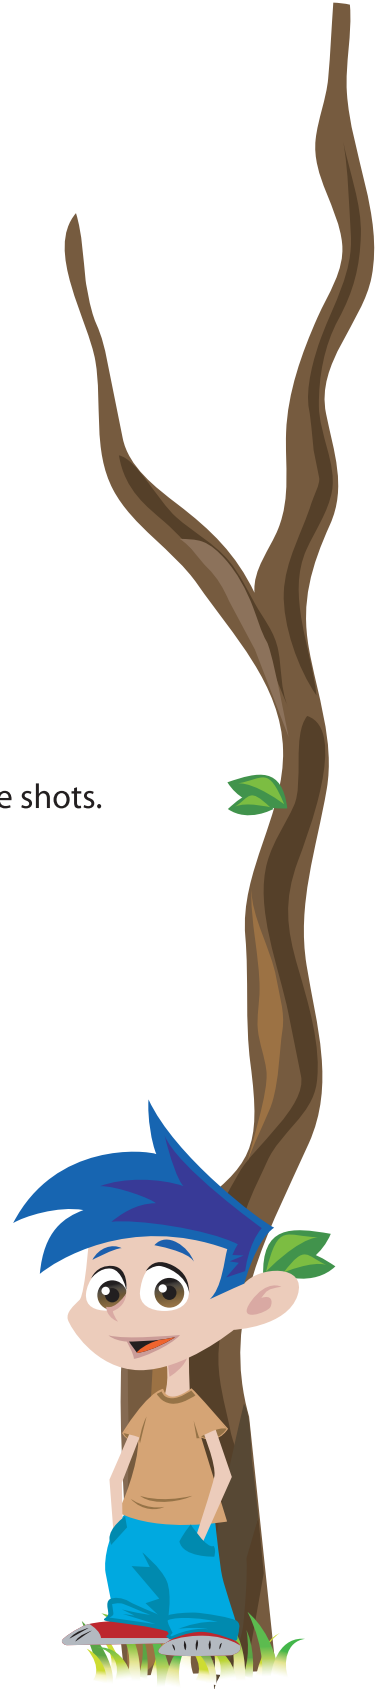

- 1 Defense
- 2 Striker
- 3 Water Boy
- 4 Goalie
- 5 Coach

2. According to Josh, what does a goalie do?

- 1 The goalie tries to make as many goals as possible.
- 2 The goalie stands in front of the goal post and tries to block the shots.
- 3 The goalie is in charge of all the practices.
- 4 The goalie dribbles the ball and tries to pass it to others.
- 5 The goalie works as the head coach of the team.

3. Which team wins the soccer match?

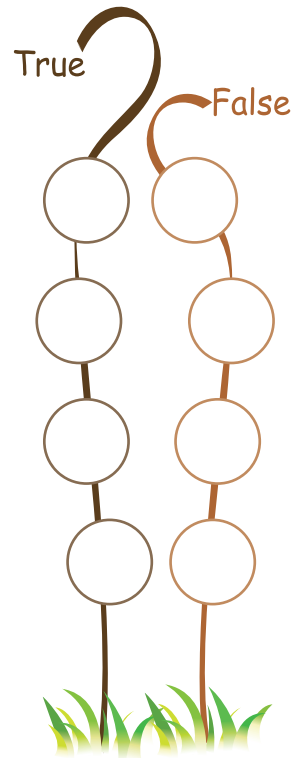

- 1 The team with the best players.
- 2 The team with the most goals.
- 3 The team with the fewest penalties.
- 4 The team with the most blocks.
- 5 The team that Josh is on.

Advanced Step

★ Check True or False.

- 1 Josh would rather watch soccer than play soccer.
- 2 His coach makes all of them run around the field to warm up.
- 3 Josh's position is a goalie.
- 4 Players don't need think about their defense.
